Mandate Letter to the Canon for Discipleship and Christian Formation Second Mark of Mission: to teach, baptize, and nurture new believers

December 15, 2025

Commemoration of Simon Gibbons, First Priest from the Inuit, 1896

Dear Rev. Canon Amber Tremblett,

Grace and peace in our Lord Jesus Christ!

I am writing with great joy and gratitude to officially invite you to take on the role of Canon for Discipleship and Christian Formation, effective January 1, 2026, and continuing until January 1, 2029.

In this important position, you will also be a part of the Cathedral Chapter of St. John the Baptist. Your passion for discipleship formation will inform our decision-making and support our shared mission. Your experience and dedication come at a crucial time as our Diocese reaffirms its commitment to providing the means for spiritual growth and to interpreting the teachings of Jesus for our time.

This appointment aligns with the Great Commission (Matthew 28:19-20) and the second Mark of Mission: to teach, baptize, and nurture new believers. Our response to the Baptismal Covenant in our daily discipleship is to be the inspiration for this ministry.

As your bishop, I envision our Diocese continuing its journey with Set Sail, our strategic plan. We will focus on the Five Marks of Mission to guide our work together. Our goal is to promote discipleship that is relevant, culturally aware, and accessible to all, meeting people where they are in their relationship with Christ as reflected in our Diocesan Mission Statement (listed below).

Canonical Mandate

In your role as Canon for Discipleship and Christian Formation, you will be our primary strategist and advocate. You will equip the Diocese to nurture believers authentically, while bridging the gap between initial faith and lifelong commitment. Your key responsibilities will include shaping formation strategies, policies, and programs; leading training for clergy and laity; fostering partnerships beyond our walls; and guiding theological reflection on discipleship. Your insights will also influence our governance, worship, and outreach efforts within the Cathedral Chapter and Diocese.

Together, we can build a Diocesan Christian Formation network, one that shares helpful resources with parishes to support everything from Sunday school and confirmation classes to youth groups and adult education, thereby helping faith communities grow and thrive at every stage of life. We could also establish the “Bishop’s Youth Council,” inviting young people aged 16-30 to have a genuine voice in our decisions, develop the next generation of leaders, and foster connections from all our parishes. We could encourage a “Discipleship Pathway” as a simple series of classes and small groups that guide people from their first steps in faith all the way into active roles of serving and leading in our church. We could host a Diocesan Formation Conference, inviting clergy, educators, and lay leaders to share best practices in teaching and nurturing faith development.

It is also essential to ensure that our approaches are inclusive, especially by collaborating with the Canon for Truth, Reconciliation, and Right Relationships, to create culturally sensitive programs.

To further strengthen your leadership and our shared mission, I encourage you to form a small team - a Discipleship and Christian Formation Advisory Council. This group should reflect diverse voices within our Diocese, including clergy, laity, and advocates. By convening this Council, we can build a collaborative spirit that keeps our discipleship formation efforts grounded in community wisdom and faithful action.

Place within the Cathedral Chapter

The Cathedral Chapter is a group of clergy and lay leaders who help govern and grow the mission of the Cathedral and Diocese. Your role as Canon for Discipleship and Christian Formation will be a key part of our shared work. To help us discern this together, please join our Cathedral Chapter meetings regularly, as scheduled. These meetings will be places for group wisdom, prayer, and thoughtful decisions.

I also look forward to one-on-one meetings with you at least twice a year. These will give us time for listening, reflection, and teamwork that respects your leadership. During these meetings, please share your ideas for a dedicated budget that would support your Canonical ministry. We will seek grants and funding based on your priorities for training, events, and partnerships.

If you ever need to step down from this role due to health, personal reasons, or any other reason, please discuss this with me openly and promptly, before submitting a formal resignation. This will allow us to discuss support options, plan next steps together, and ensure a smooth transition for the Diocese.

Amber, you are in my prayers, and you will be supported by the Chapter. May our focus on building up discipleship draw us closer, bringing Christ’s Kingdom to life in our words and actions. With great respect and excitement for the path ahead, I remain,

Yours in Christ,

The Right Reverend Samuel V. Rose
Bishop of Eastern Newfoundland & Labrador
